

2010 Event Details – ‘Purity’

SpearHead runs a mixture of day and weekend long live-roleplay events in and around the south of England. This form can be used to book for ‘Purity’, the first of the showpiece weekend long events in 2010.

All events are suitable for new and existing club members and characters. Event style tends to be gritty high fantasy within a rolling campaign.

Extract from the prophecy as scribbed by Porega

‘It is the Pure who will offer the most difficult choice.

Unaware of their role it will be the one who speaks of the future who guides them to their path.

The new age will be remembered for many things by those who come to study it. War, death, disease and supposed freedom.

The measure of the freedom will be dictated by the path chosen. The Pure, The Dead and The Gift Bearers will all seek to influence the Path. Despite their protestations it will be the deeds and choices of the people who decide the future of the land. There is a time to be had without the grip of the Earth but the freedom that it brings is by no means certain.

Paths and choices.

Many seek to direct and shape the paths.

Only the few will make the choices.’

‘Purity’ – 1st May to 3rd May 2010 – Stock Wood Iron Age Village, near Clearwell, Gloucester.

The event will run from the late afternoon of Saturday 1st May until the afternoon of Bank Holiday Monday 3rd May. The site is an Iron Age village setting complete with roundhouses and palisade surrounded by woodland and gorges.

Players – accommodation for players will be a choice of camping (in own tents) or staying in roundhouses. Meals on Saturday and Sunday evenings are included within the event price. Player spaces are strictly limited and so are on a ‘first come, first served’ basis. Bookings will open from the 16th January 2010

Players Event Price:
